

BRONSON LAW SUSTAINED BY OHIO SUPREME COURT

Decision Also Upholds the Fairness of Call for Republican Primaries

ONLY ONE DISSENTING OPINION GIVEN

Prosecutor Welty, Representing Senator Foraker Says He Will Carry the Case to U. S. Supreme Court—May Ask Injunction Claiming It Contravenes 14th Amendment to Federal Constitution.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 28.—The constitutionality of the Bronson primary election law, and the fairness of the call for Republican state primaries, to be held February 11, were sustained by the Supreme court Tuesday, in deciding both the case of Prosecutor Webber against the Franklin County Election Board, and the case of Prosecutor Welty against the Allen County Election Board.

Prosecutor Welty who represents the efforts of Senator Foraker to set aside the call for state primaries, says he will carry his case to the Supreme court of the United States on the federal question raised by him that the Bronson law contravenes the 14th amendment to the United States Constitution, guaranteeing equal protection to all. His claim is that equal protection is denied because the parties polling less than 10 per cent of the total vote cannot hold primaries.

In both the cases decided, the Supreme court affirmed the decision of the common Pleas courts, which in each case sustains both the primary law and the reasonableness of the call of the Republican State Central Committee. The court did not assign any grounds.

Under this decision primaries may now be held free from any question as to their legality, unless the United States Supreme court shall enjoin them. Prosecutor Welty said he had not thought of asking the United States Supreme court for an injunction. His present plan seems to be simply to carry the case to the highest court for a review. The Supreme court in rendering the decision, stood five to one for the affirmation of the lower courts. Judge Davis dissented.

JESSE DAVIS IS ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY

CASE HEARD TUESDAY MORNING BEFORE MAYOR HERBERT ATHERTON.

And Continued Until Saturday Morning— Young Man is Released on Bond of $300.

An interesting preliminary hearing was held in Mayor Atherton's court Tuesday morning when Jesse Davis, charged by George L. Smith, a young farmer living north of Newark, with highway robbery was given his hearing before the mayor.

The robbery, as stated in the Advocate of Monday night, was supposed to have happened Saturday evening when Smith was being driven to his home. He spent the day in this city, and, deciding to return home about 7 o'clock, he secured a rig from the Whitehead livery stable, and a young man named Harry Basehart to drive him home.

When at the first railroad crossing north of the city a man jumped from behind a tree and ordered them to "hold up your hands." They complied with the man's demand and he secured ten dollars from Smith. Basehart returned home that night but said nothing about being held up until the next day.

Smith came to Newark on Monday and immediately swore out a warrant for the arrest of Davis, and the man was taken into custody by Chief Zerkel. He was released on $300 bond, signed by Frank Graeff. His hearing was held Tuesday morning and he pleaded not guilty and the case was continued until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Graeff again went on Davis' bond for his appearance in court on Saturday. Quite a crowd of spectators gathered in the court room for the hearing as the defendant in the case is well known in Newark.

TAKES AMMONIA FOR MEDICINE

Bryan, Jan. 28.—J. J. Deal of Pioneer, instead of a cough mixture took ammonia, but fortunately realized his mistake before swallowing much of it. His mouth and throat were badly burned.

FINDS WIFE DEAD IN CHAIR.

Upper Sandusky, Jan. 28.—"Papa, come in the house and make me talk to me," said the three year old son of Harold Musselman, who met him at the door, crying. Musselman had been away from home several hours and when he entered found his wife dead in a chair.

HON. MISS VIOLET VIVIAN.

New York Jan. 28.—Great was the excitement on board the Adriatic as her last trip to New York when Lady Duff and the Hon. Miss Violet Vivian started the rumor of a coming in public on the lounge of the steamship. They puffed cigarettes quite as they would in their drawing rooms at home, and soon other passengers were following their example. At first some of the women in the machine room looked at the rumor with surprise, but quickly followed the example of the titled English women. The photograph herewith was taken on the deck of the steamship soon after she was docked.

GREENFIELD'S MAYOR DIES.

Greenfield, Jan. 28.—Mayor A. M. Mockerly died at his home here from the effects of an operation for appendicitis some weeks ago. He was aged about 59 years. He was a prominent lawyer and politician and was serving his fifth term of mayor.

LIEUT. LAHM AND MEN OVERCOME AT CANTON AND FALL UNCONSCIOUS

Canton, O., Jan. 28.—Lieut. Frank P. Lahm, the army balloonist, Albert Stronberg, H. W. Alden, and Elmer Stimpney narrowly escaped death today when they were engulfed by gas escaping from the balloon Ohio, in which Lahm plans to sail to Cleveland this afternoon. All four were carried away unconscious and revived by doctors. Lahm pluckily insisted that he would make the trip. The men were trying to free a tangled rope when overcome.

DEATHS CLOSE TOGETHER.

Bucyrus, Jan. 28.—John Schmidt, of Chicago, was called to Bucyrus by the serious illness of his father. Upon his arrival he was taken ill and died in a short time. His father died 20 minutes later.

NO PROVISION IN JESUP WILL FOR EXPLORER

New York, Jan. 28.—Through the death of Morris K. Jesup, Commander Robert E. Peary may be deprived of the chance on which he has been counting, of making a dash for the North Pole this summer. Peary had been counting on Jesup to defray most of the expenses of the trip. No provision is made in Jesup's will for carrying out Peary's plans and it was stated today that the Arctic explorer will be obliged to give up his contemplated trip.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN U. S. AND FRANCE

Washington, Jan. 28.—The French-American trade agreement, whereby certain tariff concessions are made by one nation to the other, and which has been under consideration for months, was signed at the State Department today by Ambassador Jusserand on the part of France and by Secretary of State Root for the United States. Later in the day the President will issue a proclamation putting the agreement into effect.

FREMONT PIONEER DIES.

Fremont, Jan. 28.—Mrs. Elizabeth Tuckerman, one of the first white women born in this section, died yesterday aged 90. She leaves seven children, 50 grandchildren and 42 great grandchildren.

BRYAN WILL TAKE NOMINATION IF RANK AND FILE WANT HIM REGARDLESS OF A FEW PAPERS

Washington, Jan. 28.—William Jennings Bryan has authorized, through his personal representatives in Washington, the statement that he is ready to accept the Democratic nomination for the presidency, providing the rank and file of the party believe him to be the best and most available man to make the race. Also that he will not be swayed in his judgment by the counsel of a few men or a few papers whose party loyalty is of a doubtful character.

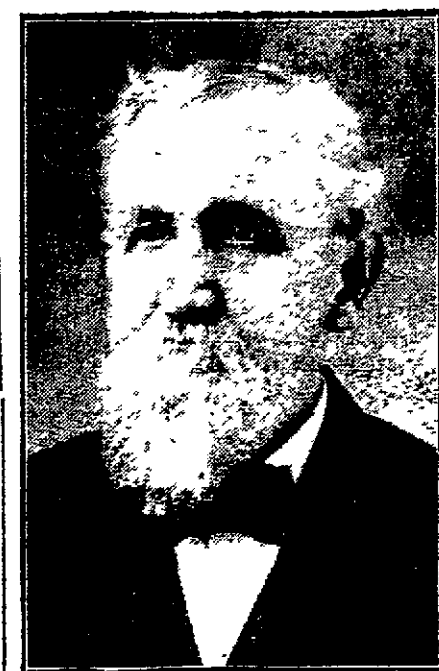

According to the statements of persons who were present last night at the first section of Senator Newland's instalment plan dinner to William J. Bryan, and the Democratic senator's policies rather than politics were discussed.

Bryan, it is said, took a back seat in the parlor conversation following the dinner and listened to the arguments of his fellow guests on the proposition to make it clear to the country that many of the policies now advocated by President Roosevelt were first advanced by the Democratic party.

cent of this city nearly all his life. He was educated in the schools of Newark and Zanesville, and also took a course in Duff's Commercial college of Columbus.

He is an expert accountant by profession and is known all over Central Ohio for his ability along this line, and his training has fitted him admirably for the position he now holds as city treasurer.

Mr. Taylor is prominent in Masonic work and is a Thirty-second degree Master, belonging to all the Masonic lodges of Newark. He belongs to Newark lodge, Warren Chapter, Bigelow Council and St. Luke's Commandery.

The photograph from which the accompanying cut is made is the first published of Mr. Taylor for the past 20 years.

EMPEROR WILLIAM CELEBRATES FORTY-NINTH BIRTHDAY MONDAY

EMPEROR WILLIAM OF GERMANY.

Berlin, Germany, Jan. 28.—Emperor William was 49 years old yesterday. He was "awakened" in the morning according to the immemorial birthday custom, by the fanfaring by the palace trumpeters and the singing of a hymn by the castle choir at 8 o'clock. His Majesty, dressed in a field marshal's uniform, greeted the chorists and received the congratulations of the visiting princes, after which there was service in the private chapel of the palace. Dr. Dryander, the court preacher delivered a sermon from the text, "God be with us."

REPRESENTATIVE HOWARD INTRODUCES THREE BILLS IN OHIO LEGISLATURE OF INTEREST TO CITY AND COUNTY

Columbus, O., Jan. 28.—Representative Robert W. Howard of Licking county, has just introduced in the House three measures which will be of interest and importance to the people of Newark and Licking county. One of Mr. Howard's bills provides for the conditional abandonment of the Ohio canal in Newark between Sixth street and the Baltimore and Ohio Railway station. The provision is for the canal to be abandoned between these points and a pipe substituted to carry the water from Sixth street to the railway station, with provision that he canal be restored at any time the state desires to use it for a public waterway. This bill will probably be referred to the Board of Public Works or the Canal Commissioners' committee.

The second bill provides for an appropriation of $25,000 for the improvement of the Kiersville feeder. At present during a freshet, the land adjacent to this feeder is flooded, and it is intended to use the appropriation for a cement wall structure at certain points to protect property.

The third bill provides for a record of real estate titles for descent. In case where a person dies intestate leaving one child, the present method is to have the title transferred to the County Auditor's office, but this affords only an insufficient record in making an abstract of title. Mr. Howard's suggestion is to have affidavits filed by two disinterested parties setting forth the facts, the same to be recorded in the County Recorder's office, thus making a strong link in the abstract of title.

Mr. Howard has been asked to introduce a measure for the improvement of Buckeye Lake and is now considering the matter, and will probably confer with the representatives of Franklin, Perry and Fairfield counties, and with those who are most familiar with conditions at the lake, in order to see what is most needed.

AGED CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF PARIS IS DEAD

Paris, Jan. 28.—Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, one of the best known Catholic clergymen in Europe is dead of congestion of the lungs. Cardinal Richard was 89 years old. He was vigorous almost until the last and the illness which cost him his life was brief. The Pope telegraphed his blessing from Rome, but a short time before the aged Cardinal breathed his last. He had been cardinal since 1889.

American Girls Who Wed Foreigners Have Taken $500,000,000 Out of Country

New York, Jan. 28.—The Vanderbilt-Szechenski marriage yesterday has renewed gossip regarding the proposition to assess a tax upon the fortunes of American women who marry foreigners. Estimates of the amount of money taken out of the country by women marrying foreigners vary from $200,000,000 to $500,000,000, many insisting that the latter figure is no over right than the former.

Among the many international marriages of interest and the amount of money that the brides brought to their foreign husbands are the following:

Gladya Vanderbilt, who married Count Szechenski	$15,000,000
Anna Gould, who married Count de Castellane	$17,000,000
May Goelet, who married Duke of Roxburghe	$40,000,000
Consuelo Vanderbilt, who married Duke of Marlborough	$10,000,000
Pauline Astor, who married Captain Spencer Clay	$20,000,000
Mrs. O. M. Roberts, who married Col. Ralph Vivian	$12,000,000
Sarah Phelps Stokes, who married Baron Hackett	$10,000,000
Eden Zimmelman, who married Duke of Manchester	$2,000,000
Mat. Leiter, who married Lord Curzon	$5,000,000
Miss Leiter, who married Lord Colin Campbell	$5,000,000
Marion Leiter, who married Lord of Suffolk	$5,000,000
Belle Wilson, who married Hon. Michael Herbert	$5,000,000
Charles Astor, who married G. Oakley Hunt	$5,000,000
Mary Sturtevant, who married Count von Muechling	$3,000,000
Ed. Hume, who married Lord Rosebery	$2,000,000
John B. and Mackay, who married Lord B. Colman	$2,000,000
Henry Carter, who married Sir Gordon Gunning	$2,000,000
Carrie Huntington, who married Prince von Hatzfeldt	$2,000,000
Minnie Stevens, who married Gen. Arthur Paget	$2,000,000

MANIA

That Caused Harry Thaw to Kill Stan- ford White

PRACTICALLY INCURABLE

Such is the Testimony of Experts Subpoenaed for Defense by Littleton

Case in Rebuttal in Practical Complete, and Case Will GO to Jury by Thursday.

The Thaw jury can return any of the following verdicts: First degree murder, penalty, death in the electric chair. Second degree murder, penalty, life imprisonment. Manslaughter, first degree, penalty, 20 years in state prison. Any minor degree of manslaughter down to simple assault. Not guilty. Not guilty on the grounds of insanity. This verdict places the responsibility of committing the accused to an insane asylum in the jurisdiction of the presiding judge.

New York, Jan. 28.—When court opened in the Thaw trial today, both Jerome and his assistants were prepared to hurry through with their rebuttal evidence. Jerome is pleased with the situation. There is no likelihood of Thaw going free. Prior to the first trial Jerome was, it is said, willing to have a commission declare White's slayer insane and send him to a hospital. But this was opposed, and his family, who believed a plea of childish conduct would influence a New York jury and secure Thaw's absolute freedom. That was tried and failed.

Littleton, one of the cleverest of criminal lawyers, when called in, realizing there was grave danger of conviction of murder in the first degree, set out to prove Thaw's insanity. He has done so, apparently to the satisfaction of himself and possibly also of the prosecution. He was forced to go farther, however, than he anticipated with the result that two of his own experts have sworn that Thaw's mental ailment was manic-depressive insanity. And to Justice Dowling, these two men, Doctors Wagner and Jelliffe, recognized as authorities on mental cloudiness, admitted the disease was practically incurable. The significance of this is very great when the autocratic power of a Supreme court justice is considered. Should this jury acquit, even without giving the reason of insanity, Dowling can at once appoint a commission to investigate Thaw's present mental condition. And the evidence of these two men will be very hard to combat should any one try to prove Thaw sane at present.

Abe Hummel having refused to come to court, the court will go to him unless all signs fail. Justice Dowling plans to take the jury, the lawyers and the prisoner to Blackwell Island penitentiary immediately following this afternoon's session, where Hummel will be examined, and this dapper little lawyer, for years called one of the best dressed men in New York, will be forced to take the stand and give his testimony in the coarse black and gray striped convict dress of a city prisoner.

This plan will be followed unless Jerome changes his mind, and decides he doesn't need Hummel's testimony to offset that of reyn Thaw.

INVESTIGATION

By Lexow Committee at Cincinnati, Will Not Be Blocked by Senate Republicans.

Columbus, Jan. 28.—It is predicted that the Cincinnati Lexow committee will not be blocked by the Republicans. Little opposition is expected in the Senate this afternoon, and none has been threatened in the House. Should a committee be appointed it will be bipartisan, and Senator Espy will be chairman.

MRS. EMMA SHIVELY AND MRS. BELLE BEATTY, TWIN SISTERS, 73 YEARS OLD.

"I am in my 73d year and preserve my health and keep my strength up by using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Have been using it for several years. As a tonic for old age I consider it without an equal."—MRS. EMMA SHIVELY, Big Clifty, Ky., Feb. 28th, 1907.

"Before I began the use of your Duffy's Malt Whiskey last May I was so run down and nervous I could not walk a square; after taking several bottles I became strong and felt better than I did for years, so I have been using it ever since, and I now seldom ever have an ache or a pain. I am 73 years old."—MRS. BELLE BEATTY, 1731 15th St., Louisville, Ky.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ of the seed and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a pale malt, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

"If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It is dangerous to fill your system with drugs. They poison the body and depress the heart, while Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a medicine everywhere. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been analyzed and tested by chemists for the past fifty years, and has always been found absolutely pure and to contain great medicinal properties."

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, be sure you get the genuine. It is the one absolutely pure medicinal whiskey and is sold only in sealed bottles—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. SOME BIG MEASURES

Coming Up for Action by Ohio Legislature This Week.

BOTH BRANCHES WILL BE BUSY

Plans to Remodel State House Again Under Consideration—The Present Buildings Overcrowded—State Pension for Ohio Soldiers—Taxation, Insurance and Other Measures.

Columbus, O., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Important measures will claim attention in both branches of the legislature this week.

The house committee on banking will have the final hearing Tuesday night on the Thomas banking bill. Not much time will be consumed by this measure in the house, as it passed the house two years ago and will go through again. There will be more opposition, however, than there was two years ago, unless the provision that the state shall meet the expense of the proposed department of bank inspection, instead of assessing the banks to create a fund for that purpose is stricken out.

Wednesday the house committee on taxation will hear final arguments on the proposed amendments to the constitution to permit the classification of property for taxation to do away with the so-called uniform rule. This change was recommended by the taxation commission appointed by Governor Harris, but it is opposed by part of the membership of the state senate and some of the officials of that organization. One of the amendment resolutions pending in the house was offered by Representative Wertz (D.) of Wayne, and the other by Representative Hoiles (R.) of Stark. The resolutions are identical in effect, and practically so in words. One of them probably will be reported favorably by the committee soon after the hearing Wednesday, and early action by the house will be urged. When the resolution reaches the senate, for it is certain to go through the house, it will meet with determined opposition. Senator Williams, president of the senate, said recently that this commission had no more authority to recommend a change in the tax methods of Ohio than has anybody else, which sounded like a warning of opposition.

Senator Huffman's primary election bill seems to have frightened the Taft Republicans of Ohio into connivance. So many amendments were made by the senate committee on elections that the bill was ordered printed as amended before the senate would act on the committee's recommendation that the bill pass as amended. The humor of it all was that the Taft men tried to make a bugaboo of the bill by claiming that it would knock out the Republican primaries and convention if passed before Feb. 11. It either did not occur to them, or they did not care to raise the point that if the Huffman primary bill really were a conspiracy in behalf of the Foraker faction, Governor Harris could hold it up and finally veto it, if it should go that far, because the governor is on record as one of the Taft men in Ohio officialdom. There is another reason why all talk of knocking out the Republican primaries by act of the legislature is silly. The call is as much a part of the procedure of a state convention as is the preliminary organization or the work of committees before the convention is permanently organized, and no primary election law passed by this legislature could overthrow the call, for the constitution puts the ban on retroactive legislation.

Representative Stewart of Clark county, chairman of the joint committee on insurance, which framed a series of 14 insurance bills, is again on hand, having recovered from an attack of diphtheria. This new series of insurance bills differs somewhat from the series of bills along the same line introduced two years ago and referred to this special joint committee, and would materially revise the insurance laws of Ohio. Among other important provisions are standard forms in policies, instead of permitting some of the big companies to write numerous forms as in the past. The bills also will prohibit misrepresentation of policies and assets, and require that where companies do both participating and non-participating business they must render separate statements for publication. Another important provision is that by which loans may be deferred for six months, the necessity for which change was demonstrated by the recent money stringency in New York. One of the bills that is certain to have opposition seeks to put burial associations under the supervision of the state superintendent of insurance. The committee that prepared the bill thought it advisable to put in this provision and let the legislature settle the question. There are several bills pending to suppress this kind of insurance.

Senator Howe's franchise tax bill is scheduled for consideration by the senate Wednesday. Governor Harris has seen fit to throw a club at it by suggesting that no such action be taken until after the proposed taxation amendment to the constitution is submitted to the people and ratified, which amendment promises to give the legislature a free hand in the classification of property for taxation. But Senator Howe wants his bill passed anyway, if he can get it through. It is not certain that the taxation amendment resolution will be adopted by the legislature or ratified by the people if submitted. He used to get the bill through two years ago, when it met much the same opposition that confronts it now.

It is expected that the senate committee on temperance will report the Rose county option bill this week with a favorable recommendation. The committee is said to be evenly divided, with the balance of power in the hands of the chairman, Senator Drake. When the usual weekly adjournment was taken Friday Senator Drake would say nothing as to his attitude on the bill. When he got to Sandusky Saturday night he made it known, or at least was so reported, that he would sign the committee's report recommending the bill and vote for it when it comes up for final action by the senate.

Indications are that the child labor bills passed by the house last week will have some hard bumps in the senate. An informal discussion by several senators showed the following diversity of sentiment: Mr. Lamb thought it was drastic; Mr. Pollock said it prevented boys under 14 doing any kind of work, even during the summer vacation, which was vicious; Mr. Berry said it encouraged idleness, and Mr. Hunt was not entirely satisfied with its provisions. Senator Hafner was its only defender in the group.

The fertilizer scandal is going to help Senator Drake's bill fixing the formula for commercial fertilizer. The charges and counter charges are sufficient to prove at least the need of specific legislation to protect the farmers of Ohio from such frauds as have been charged.

Senator Crist's bill to erect a separate building for the state library, and the Hunt resolution to inquire into the present overcrowded condition of the state house, will probably bring about a remodeling of the capitol, for which plans are being prepared. This matter went so far a dozen years ago as to have plans drawn for two wings to the present structure, one on the north and the other on the south. These plans fell through and the building occupied by the supreme court and state offices was erected instead. The additional building did not relieve the congestion, however. Quite a number of state officials have offices outside of the capitol, for which the state is paying rent. Renewal of the project to enlarge the state house has also revived discussion as to the best plan, whether by adding wings and another story to the classic old building or whether to erect buildings on the north and south sides, like the supreme court building on the east side, thereby developing a group plan for capitol buildings.

The supreme court building cost about $400,000. It is suggested that one wing at a time could be built without interfering with the occupancy of the present buildings, each wing to cost about the same as the supreme court annex.

Ohio veterans contemplate asking the legislature to pass a pension bill giving them a state pension in addition to the federal pension. A pension act similar to that proposed for Ohio was recently passed in Pennsylvania, but was vetoed by the governor for the reason that it presented an impossible task, inasmuch as it provided a pension for all veterans who enlisted in Pennsylvania, no matter where their residence might be. A new bill has been proposed, which, if passed, will give veterans of that state a pension of from $5 to $10 a month, providing they have lived in Pennsylvania for 10 years, and this will be taken as a model for the Ohio pension bill if presented.

Only one general appropriation bill will be required at the hands of the house finance committee this year, as it is expected that another regular legislative session will be held next year by reason of the change in year for state elections. The committee expects to finish its work by the end of March, and judging from other years, the members of the legislature, immediately upon the passage of the appropriation bill, will begin to talk about going home. It is not probable, however, that there will be an early adjournment this year, for many of the leading members of both senate and house have declared in positive terms their intention of staying in session until all important work is finished.

C. W. RIDDLE.

IS IT POSSIBLE?

Forty-three million eight hundred and twenty-six thousand persons suffering with rheumatism, kidney and bladder affections, and should not continue, says a well-known authority. Prompt treatment is required in most cases to prevent complications. Acid urine, pains and burning, pains in small of back, pulling and aching of legs, foul breath and coated tongue, scanty or profuse urinating, poor appetite and feverish thirst all indicate kidney and bladder affections which will soon develop into rheumatism, gout, dropsy, etc. This simple home treatment was recommended for the poorer classes by Galt, the celebrated German, but thousands of the wealthy are taking it. Have any honest druggist mix one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu, one ounce compound fluid Buchu, wort and two ounces of Syrup Sarsaparilla compound. Shake well and take a teaspoonful before each meal and one at retiring. One-fourth to one-half dose will cure bed-wetting children, by tonic power on bladder nerves. Cut this valuable item out and try it when needed. Some drug stores may not have all the ingredients, but can obtain from wholesale firms who supply doctors.

AMUSEMENTS

Vaudeville shows may come and go, but none have met with such universal endorsement as the bill which is being presented at the Orpheum this week. Large and pleased crowds were in attendance yesterday and judging from the applause accorded, capacity business should be the rule this week.

Hickman Bros. & Company in their comedy playlet, "The Detective Detected," heralded as one of the best acts, easily sustained that reputation at the initial performance. They carry a special stage setting. The act is alive with fun, introducing all new comedy, and the entire act is away from anything ever seen on the local stage.

The Ross Sisters, singers and dancers do a big refined act. They do some novel toe dancing and must be seen to be appreciated.

Rudolph Askoland is a violinist of no little ability. His rendering of difficulty and popular selections brought forth hearty applause.

Monroe & Company, in comedy sketch, in which they introduce popular selections of the day, are very pleasing.

Mrs. Shane made a decided hit with his illustrated song "The Little Black Lamb." "Life in a Teak Forest" is a very interesting and instructive picture and appeals to all.

ROSAR-MASON STOCK CO.

The Rosar Mason Stock company on Tuesday evening will present a comedy drama in four acts, entitled, "A Minister's Sacrifice." It is a production with a strong religious vein, one of the chief characters being a minister, who impresses his personality on the other characters of the play, rescues the heroine from a life of degradation, foils the villain at every turn and brings about a happy solution of all the difficulties into which the plotting of an unscrupulous wretch has plunged an entire household and left a trail of broken hearts as a result. One of the strong situations of the play and a novel one in the dramatic line as well, is the preaching of a sermon, brief it is true in a mission in New York city, which ends in an unexpected tragedy that causes a deep laid plot on the minister's life to react upon the perpetrators.

On Wednesday afternoon the company will present the old standard play of "East Lynne," with a full cast of characters.

The vaudeville artists will change their acts at every performance.

On Yawning.

I have come to the conclusion that if a man yawns and you don't want to yawn too, the only way to prevent it is to blow your nose. A man of my acquaintance boasts that he can set a whole railway carriage full of people yawning by merely taking time over it himself, and I believe he can.—Fry's Magazine.

HERE AND THERE

Things are brightening up in the brick and tiling industry. A traveling man reports that while these industries over Ohio have immense stocks on hand it has commenced moving the past week, and as money is getting freer, they can get advances again so many brick and tile kilns have started burning this week. Many machine shops too, that supply machinery for these industries, are putting on their usual complement of men, and a good business is predicted on the opening of the spring.

Passenger business on railroads is only secondary to the freight business, and legislators in calculating earnings of steam railroads should look alive to the fact, that nine-tenths of the passengers carried are in the business of looking up business for the freight carrying department of the railroad. When it comes to traveling salesmen, who are the majority or the regular travelers on a railroad, they could actually be carried for nothing, for each one is as much an agent of the road as he is for the house he represents.

"Come on home, Joe," said a woman as she passed her husband on the street where he was standing in front of the Trust building. "Oh, I'm well fixed now, with the bank behind me," he replied.

The B. & O. train from Sandusky was crowded with passengers Saturday night, so crowded in fact that with two extra cars added there were more passengers than seats. The seat hog was aboard too, as usual, and many persons got out of humor. Then the steam hose bursting near Lexington, the train stopped and the complaints grew serious. But St. Gatton of Gatton's Rocks, was aboard. St. Gatton has a never failing sense of humor, and a fund of clean stories based on actual happenings during his life. So when the gloom was at its deapest, St. opened up, and regaled some of his friends with stories of hunting and fishing scrapes, that were told with such quaint humor that he soon had the attention of every troubled soul in the car. Children listened to things they had never heard before, cross women with babies and bundles even laughed, men that a few minutes before who for 30 cents would have kicked the conductor or sued the company, guffawed and forgot their troubles, and one man remarked that he was so entertained that he didn't care whether the train ever started again or not.

Mr. Gatton is a natural entertainer and with a bright and sunny disposition probably does more to make dark spots bright than many a preacher.

A great agitation is being started all over the state by the League of American Sportsmen for the further protection of game. Letters are being sent to all who are interested, imploring their aid in saving the remnant of our song and game birds and animals. Various plans are proposed, one of which is to stop all hunting and fishing for some certain kinds of fish for a long term of years. A law like this would only make more outlaws than ever, and as it seems impossible to convict now when an action is brought against an alleged violator of the game laws, the law would have no effect. All radical cures are made at the fountain head. We have plenty of laws now that if they were intelligently enforced, that would stop the ruthless slaughter now going on. No person has a right to carry a fire-arm out of the hunting season, and any person caught with a fire-arm at any time is liable to arrest, for only in the hunting season has any one any semblance of a right with a gun, and if he is hunting on land other than his own, he must carry a hunting permit. If the state authorities would go at this in earnest, by appointing game wardens with nerve who would confiscate every gun found in sportsmen's hands, the promiscuous hunting would soon be at an end.

The owner of a gun that has been taken when found working out of season or with no permit would hardly fight the case, and with the fire-arm retired, the transgressor would hardly invest his coin in a gun again.

The gun is the fountain head. If new laws are needed, license the gun. Other states even prohibit the sale of fire-arms, and the prohibition is effective. As the law now stands, no one has a right to shoot a gun out of season in the State of Ohio, or carry a loaded firearm. Enforce this law, get the professional hunters on the protective side by employing them at a fair salary as wardens, it is their line of business, and once more getting a living at work that they like, they will prove much more effective in apprehending malefactors than people who know nothing about the habits of our wild things, or the ways of those who are wont to destroy them. Keep the guns within the existing laws; relegate them to the traps and shooting galleries, educate the farmer to whom the game belongs and in a few years there will be only one side to the game protection question.

Wheat made a decided downward plunge Saturday, closing about two cents off; it has been on decline for some weeks past, but the conservatives now think that flour and wheat is a good purchase at present prices.

Will Pattern After Newark.
The circuit judges have placed an entry on their docket relative to having the circuit court room put in condition for them to use. They also want a consultation room. The commissioners have been asked by the circuit judges to visit Newark in order to get an idea of how a circuit court room should be fixed up.—Mansfield Shield.

John F. Burke Very Ill.
Mrs. Nellie Francis of East Locust street, has received the tidings that her brother, Mr. John F. Burke, of Junction City, is very low at the State Hospital at Columbus. Mr. Burke is suffering from a nervous collapse. He is well known here as a heavy shipper of country produce, and has been the agent at Junction City for the B. & O. railway company for many years.

Central Church of Christ.
The greatest meeting of the series occurred last night at Central. The minister spoke on the "Unpopular Teaching of Jesus," covering the entire sermon on the mount. The song service and Prof. Miller's solo were incentives to all to prepare to meet God. Four men gave themselves to the Master at the invitation. The appointment as usual tonight at 7:30, sermon at 8. Remember the chalk talk for Bible school pupils Friday at 6 o'clock.

No More Soldiers For Islands.
Recruiting Officer Beardslee of the United States army, who has been at the Star hotel for several weeks past securing men for the army, says that Newark is a good town to secure men in, and so far he has enlisted an even dozen. The men he has already enlisted are for service in the Philippines, but from now on the enlisting of men will be simply for service in the United States, as all regiments bound for the islands have been filled.

THE COME AND SEE SIGN

PUBLIC INSPECTION INVITED FROM 8 A.M. TO 4 P.M. SATURDAYS EXCEPTED
LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.

This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

What Does This Sign Mean?
It means that public inspection of the Laboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the business which is not "open and above-board."

It means that a permanent invitation is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs—without drugs?

Come and See.
Do the women of America continually use as much of it as we are told?

Come and See.
Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom sick women are asked to write?

Is the vast private correspondence with sick women conducted by women only, and are the letters kept strictly confidential?

Come and See.
Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents?

Come and See.
Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women?

Come and See.
This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills will still go on using and being benefited by it; but the poor doubting, suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Eliza Ampsbaugh, who died January 22, 1908:
Oh, mother, could you speak to us,
And could you but live again.
Our aching hearts would then be healed,
But this we wish in vain.
Our hearts are sad and lonely,
Our grief too deep to tell,
We hope and pray to meet you
Then all to you we'll tell.
—From grief stricken Husband and Children.

CARD OF THANKS.

We herewith extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all our relatives and neighbors, and especially to the Relief Corps, Rev. Mr. Railer, and for the beautiful floral tributes and for the large attendance at the funeral of our beloved mother, Mrs. Eliza Ampsbaugh. Foin Husband and Children.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindness during the death and burial of our brother, Samuel M. Ritter, also the German Life Insurance, German Benevolent Society, Royal Neighbors of America, Rev. Jos. Bennett and singers, and especially Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shradler and family. SIMPLE WASH CURES ECZEMA.

Itching, Burning Skin Disease Routed Without Use of Injurious Drugs.

Great inventors often have been praised for surrendering the secrets of their discoveries. Practically the same thing happened in the medical world in the case of Dr. Decatur D. Dennis, the eminent skin specialist of Chicago.

Dr. Dennis in his own office practice discovered that pure vegetable oil of wintergreen, properly mixed with other simple remedies was practically a sure specific for Eczema, psoriasis, barber's itch, salt rheum, and other itching skin diseases. But the oil of wintergreen alone was found ineffective. It required other mild ingredients such as glycerine and thymol compounded with the wintergreen to produce the real eczema cure.

This compounded D. D. D. Prescription positively takes away the itch at once—the instant it is applied to the skin. This vegetable liquid does away with deleterious drugs so long used in an attempt to doctor the blood, whereas modern science has determined that eczema is first and all the time a skin disease.

If you want to know more about the merits of D. D. D. Prescription, call at our store. We vouch for this remedy. Frank D. Hall, druggist, N. Park Place, Newark, Ohio.

How the Courts Undo Legislation

By Justice WILLIAM J. GAYNOR of the New York Supreme Court.

IN the hands of ENLIGHTENED judges our common law is ELASTIC ENOUGH TO BE ADAPTED TO THE NATION'S PROGRESS instead of being made a stumbling block in the way. We have also to consider whether the trend of the courts has not come to be too great toward setting aside acts of the legislatures.

MANY ARE OF OPINION THAT THE COURTS ARE GOING TOO FAR AND ARE TOO EAGER IN THAT DIRECTION.

Our legislatures have the UNQUESTIONABLE right to regulate the rates and fares of public service corporations. In New York the legislature, by a committee appointed by it for the purpose and aided by eminent counsel and the highest expert advice, made an exhaustive examination of the cost of the manufacture and supplying of gas, with a view to reducing its price in large cities. On the report made the legislature, with due deliberation and care, reduced the price to 80 cents. A MASTER IN CHANCERY AND A JUDGE FORTHWITH DECLARED THE STATUTE VOID on the ground that it violated that provision of the federal or state constitution which forbids the taking of private property without compensation.

It is certain that those who framed and passed that CONSTITUTIONAL provision never dreamed of its being put to such a purpose.

THERE IS NO DANGER, IN MY JUDGMENT, OF OUR LEGISLATURES CONFISCATING PRIVATE PROPERTY. IT HAS NEVER BEEN DONE IN THE ANGLO-SAXON WORLD OR ANYWHERE ELSE, FOR THAT MATTER, UNLESS IN REVOLUTIONS IN WHICH WRONGS WERE RIGHTED.

MR. ASHBROOK'S COINAGE BILL

Providing for Restoration of the Motto, "In God We Trust,"—An Important Measure.

Washington, Jan. 28.—On Tuesday, the 21st, Hon. William A. Ashbrook of the 17th District of Ohio, introduced a bill in the House of Representatives providing for the restoration of the motto, "In God we Trust," upon all coins. Mr. Ashbrook introduced the bill from a partisan standpoint, feeling as he did, that the President had made a serious mistake, and the sooner rectified the better, when he ordered this sacred inscription omitted from the United States coinage. Since the year 1891 up to a few months ago, this inscription had adorned nearly all of the coins of the United States government, and its omission has caused very much comment.

President Roosevelt in removing these words, may have been prompted by a spirit of sincerity, yet in a case of this nature which is so vitally and universally of interest to every single person in the country, it would seem that Congress ought to have been consulted. By the letter of our constitution, Congress is delegated the power to coin money, and it is Congress who shall regulate and decide upon the form and inscriptions of our moneys. Hence the President grossly encroached upon the power of Congress when he directed that the words "In God we trust" be stricken from the most symbolical of our great republic, be stricken off the American coinage.

As the true representative body directly emanating from the people, the House of Representatives, through Mr. Ashbrook's bill, will decide this question, and their decision will in fact, voice the sentiment of the people. The coinage of a nation is the history of that nation. When a nation has decayed and fallen, her coins will yet remain as landmarks of her progress. No nation could have a more fitting emblem to characterize her spirit than that phrase, "In God we trust," which is in itself synonymous to American freedom and truth. The fact that our great republic has voiced these sentiments in act and deed and has placed her trust in a great Divine One, has made her the strong Christian nation that she is today. We have left to us by the uncivilized and barbarous nations heavy metallic coins, devoid of inscription, and stamped with some coarse object, a shield or eagle. These moneys come to us and tell a story. To some future peoples our moneys will deliver some message and let that message be on the right side of the scale, and explain the life and faith of a great Christian people.

Money is defined as a medium of exchange. It is something more than a mere commercial product, as the quest of every home. It is the one great unifying element cementing together the heart of the nation with the heart of her people. The little child has the shining dollar for its playmate, and learns to love it, and the inscription thereon is often the first word of the language that becomes fixed in its mind. Shall the children in the future merely regard the dollar as a sole piece of metal, carrying with it nothing but a cold commercial value? No. Teach the children to love the dollar for what it is and not for what had men have made it.

Mr. Ashbrook as a banker has always been deeply interested in the subject of coinage, and it was for this reason that he was appointed a member of the Assay Commission by the President. He is also a member of the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures, and it is before this committee that his bill will come up for recommendation. His bill is regarded as one of the most important acts introduced in the 60th Congress.

"Boost the Booster!"

That's the official slogan of a certain town in Arkansas which through boosting itself and boosting its boosters has doubled its population since the 1900 census.

BOOST THE BOOSTER!
The Arkansas town had been quarreling among itself for years, and standing still. It had boosters, but it had others who refused to boost the boosters, refused to stand by them and yell, "Good boy—keep it up!"

BOOST THE BOOSTER!
Finally the town got together with itself, organized a "Boost the Booster Club" and began to boom. Now its principal thoroughfare, which was a streak of mud, is a stretch of asphalt, and it has new buildings to match. Now everybody boosts the booster and booms the boom.

BOOST THE BOOSTER!
This town might take a hint from that one. We have our town boosters—every town has some. But sometimes they get discouraged because of opposition right here in our midst.

BOOST THE BOOSTER!
Cut out the criticism!
Quit the queering!
Boom the Boom!
Then watch the old town perk up and plunge forward. You can see it move.

WHEN YOU BOOST THE BOOSTER YOU BOOM
THE BOOM.

CHARLES FOY NEWARK MAN WAS KILLED

WHILE WORKING FOR THE B. & O. AT BRUNSWICK YARDS, MARYLAND.

Wife is at Present Away From Home —Dr. C. S. Morse Appointed B. & O. Optician.

Mr. J. P. Fitzgerald, trainmaster of the Newark division of the B. & O. railroad, received a telegram Tuesday morning from the trainmaster of the Brunswick Yards, Md., informing him that Charles Foy, a brakeman in the Brunswick yards, whose home was in Newark, had been killed at an early hour Tuesday morning, and requesting him to notify Foy's wife, who lived in Newark. Diligent inquiry was made from the railroad offices, but for some time no trace of the whereabouts of the wife could be learned. Chief Zergibel was then notified and he succeeded in locating the home of Mrs. Foy, near the furniture factory, in the southwestern part of the city. Upon going to the home it was learned that Mrs. Foy was away, and members of the family were notified. At this writing it is not known what disposition will be made of the remains, and no particulars of his death have yet been received.

Dr. Morse B. & O. Optician.
Dr. C. S. Morse, the well known and popular optician of this city, has just been appointed company optician for the B. & O. railroad company at this point, vice Dr. D. J. Price, resigned. The appointment takes effect on the 5th of February. Dr. Morse is one of the most skilled opticians in Ohio and his appointment is a most excellent one.

Pennsy's Baggage System.
Important changes are being made by the Pennsylvania in its system of handling baggage, whereby several kinds of things that have heretofore been carried as baggage will hereafter go by freight. The new rule will prohibit the handling of dangerous animals as baggage, or in fact, any animal weighing more than 250 pounds. Circus paraphernalia and heavy stage effects are also to be barred as baggage.

Freight Tonnage Increasing.
Now comes the good news that freight tonnage has commenced to increase on the railroads for the first time since the recent business depression commenced. It is thought the necessity no longer exists for the threatened general reduction in railroad wages. The demand for cars is said to be increasing and the idle ones are gradually taken from the sidings and put into service. Hence the expectation that the situation will be considerably improved within the next two weeks.

B. & O. Inspection Party.
B. & O. officials from Baltimore headquarters are on an inspection trip over the various divisions, including tracks, bridges, terminals and passenger and freight stations. In the inspection party are John Walber, assistant to the third vice president, Chief Architect M. A. Long, Chief Engineer of Construction E. M. Kinsman, and others high up in the list of officials of the road.

Cut Affects Ten Men.
The salary cut which has been put in effect on the B. & O. railroad will affect ten persons on the Newark division of the road. The cut is ten per cent of the salaries of all officials drawing over $150 per month.

Railroad Personals.
Martin Connors, a former well known B. & O. engineer, who has been very sick for the past four or five months, and who for the past month has been undergoing treatment at the State Hospital, Columbus, is reported as being very low at this writing.

Brakeman Fred Hilon who has been sick for some time, is reported as slowly improving.

Charles D. Hohenbueser, the well known inspector of engines at the B. & O. shops, this point, is confined to his home, 32 Ferry street, with rheumatism.

Engineer Wm. J. Anderson who was injured so badly in the wreck at New's last September, is now showing great improvement.

Fireman Clarence H. Dunlap, who was badly injured in the wreck at New's last September is slowly improving, although still confined to his home.

Machinist Hugh Kilpatrick of 129 Wing street, is suffering with a severe attack of grip.

Conductor D. H. Murphy of West Lounst street, who had the misfortune to sprain both his ankles some time ago, is able to be around.

Conductor J. H. Powell is still confined to his bed on account of an injury received about a month ago, although he is rapidly improving at this writing.

THE SOUDON IDEAL PLACE TO SPEND HONEYMOON

THE TEMPLE AT PHILAE DURING ELOOD

NATIVE EGYPTIAN CRECHES NEAR THE TEMPLE

EGYPTIAN SOLDIERS AT LUXOR

MRS. GEOFFREY DUVEEN, PH.D.

MR. GEOFFREY DUVEEN

(Advocate Correspondence.)
New York, Jan. 28.—Where to pass the honeymoon is a subject that each year is fraught with the deepest interest for a large number of persons in every civilized land. Some Americans are content with a trip to Washington or perhaps to Florida. The average dweller in London may go to Brighton for a few days and follow it up with a trip to Paris. There are many young persons, however, and the number seems to be rapidly increasing, who hope to make a wedding journey that may be out of the ordinary beaten track. Some who have the means try a trip around the world, and it was only a few years ago that a wealthy young man of Cincinnati and his bride journeyed to the Arctic regions on their wedding trip. The fancy of Geoffrey Duveen, son of Henry J. Duveen, well known art dealer of New York and London, was for the Soudon, and his bride, who was Miss Ethel Lewis of London, agreed that this might be a delightful place for the honeymoon. The wedding of Mr. Duveen and Miss Lewis took place in London on November 25 last year, and was a brilliant social event. Mr. and Mrs. Duveen arrived in New York a week ago last Friday and are at the St. Regis.

Mr. Duveen is keenly interested in Egyptology, and was anxious to visit the famous ruins that abound in the valley of the Nile, so that this influenced the decision to make the Soudon the objective point of the journey.

OBITUARY

FRANK A. NASH.

Frank A. Nash, a widely known hotel man of Newark, O., known all through Ohio as a professor of music, died January 8, 1908, at Butler, Pa., at his daughters home on McKinley avenue, where he had gone thinking to regain his health, which became impaired in St. Louisville, O., in April of 1906. He had contracted a severe cold which terminated in bronchitis. After consulting some of the best physicians in Butler, who pronounced his disease incurable he gave up all hopes and turned to his Lord, and said, "Thy will be done." He was a devout Roman Catholic, having been a convert to the faith nearly two years. He bore his sufferings with Christian patience and his pastor in his sermon said of him, "If this was a time for praise, I could praise him highly, as he had often told his good priest, 'I have suffered, but, oh nothing to what my blessed Lord has suffered for me.'"

His oldest daughter, Mrs. Ida Silk (nee Nash) went to St. Louisville 18 months ago, to nurse him through his sickness which she did. After seeing his sufferings were of such a serious nature she asked him to give up his home in Ohio and go with her to Butler, which he gladly did, hoping to soon be well again. His doctors said on seeing him that he would never be well, so as best they could, his wife and children prepared for his end which could be expected at any time.

Mr. Nash descends from one of the oldest and most respected pioneer families in Licking county, Ohio. His father and mother, John B. and Nancy P. Nash, built and lived in a beautiful home nearly a century ago, just one mile east of Union, O. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Caroline Nash (nee Anna) and three daughters, Mrs. Thomas Silk, Butler, Pa.; Mrs. R. A. Arr, Allegheny, Pa.; and Mrs. Wm. Preston of Parkersburg, W. Va.; two sons, of Newark, O. Mrs. Ella White, a nurse and Mrs. Samuel Warren, a mourner, his death. He was 63 years of age, and a strange coincidence was that on the day of Mr. Nash's funeral, Mrs. Ford Young passed Newark. They were old friends and associates having been engaged as organists of the Solida Four orchestra of Newark.

Eternal rest grant to him, oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

BARBARA METZNER.

Mrs. Barbara Metzner died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Rooney on Fulton avenue at 11 p. m. Monday of exhaustion, caused by an attack of pneumonia and paralysis, at the advanced age of 80 years.

No arrangements have been made at this writing for the funeral services.

Mrs. Metzner was born in Germany and came to this country when quite young. She was married to Wm. Metzner 61 years ago and at that time joined the Lutheran denomination, remaining a faithful member ever since. She removed from St. Louisville to this city eight years ago, and made many friends, all of whom regret to hear of her demise.

She is survived by three sons and three daughters, being Jasper and Louis of Ft. Wayne, William of Portland, Ind., Mrs. J. W. Rooney of Fulton avenue, Mrs. Etta Rose of Ft. Wayne and Mrs. Callie Hall of Utica.

INFANT'S DEATH.

Mary Edith Armstrong, the nine months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Armstrong, died Monday evening shortly after 5 o'clock, after a short illness of brain fever.

At this time the arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

How Is Your Digestion?

Mrs. Mary Dowling of No. 228 5th ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles, Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market today." This great tonic and alterative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of feeble weakness. Sold at F. D. Hall's drug store.

Easy to buy, easy to try, the best, pleasant, appetizing breakfast is at Atch's famous pancakes. 1

The Advocate's Evening Story

MY ANCESTOR.

The Emmingways were a very proud family. For generations they had been well enough off to keep a carriage, and the ladies in the family had maids and the men valets. Miss Rosamond Emmingway and I were very chummy. Indeed, there was but one thing to prevent our being engaged, and that was that one of my ancestors in colonial times had turned highwayman, whereas no stain whatever rested on the Emmingway escutcheon. I considered it very hard that I should have to give up my love for the sins of one who had preceded me by four generations.

Miss Emmingway's father was an old man in his dotage, who was never permitted to go out except attended by his valet. One evening when I was calling on his daughter my wallet, which at the time happened to be well supplied with bills, slipped from my pocket. I didn't miss it till after I had left the house and returned for it. It was not to be found. A few days later Mr. Emmingway's valet came to see me with the pocketbook, informing me that he had found it in his master's possession. I asked him if he had informed Miss Emmingway of the facts, and he said that he had; that the lady was overcome with mortification, and I gave the valet $10 for his honesty and his trouble and charged him to keep the secret.

Soon after this I received a summons to go to Miss Emmingway immediately. On reaching the house I found her in great distress. Her father had stolen away alone, and when he returned his valet had found his pockets full of jewelry. The good offices being asked, I examined the articles, determined the store they had been taken from, went there, told the head of the firm that the old man was in his dotage and returned the articles. For this I received Miss Emmingway's hearty thanks.

The old man came to be known at certain stores as a kleptomaniac. When he was caught stealing things bills were sent to his house, which his daughter immediately paid. The valet had orders when stolen articles were found in his pocket to return them immediately. But a great many articles were paid for that were not found.

Soon after the discovery of the old man's failing I renewed my suit to Miss Emmingway, to be again put off on account of my rascally ancestor.

"If you love me," I said, "that should make no difference. My ancestor—very remote—had a weakness for other people's things, but he had the manliness to take them at the point of a pistol."

"While my father is only a sneak thief," she added dejectedly.

"Not at all. Your father has simply arrived at an age where he is breaking up. I alone know of his weakness, except his valet, and so long as you keep the valet well fed he will keep the secret. I, of course, would rather die than have you suffer from the matter getting out among your friends."

"You are a noble, good man."

When a woman uses such language to a man it is an indication of yielding. I knew myself to be a very commonplace person, but I had the sense to press my suit and won.

"We both suffer from like causes," she said. "We must comfort each other."

I kissed her a dozen times and secretly hoped the old man would continue his depredations till after our marriage. Indeed, I hurried up the wedding, fearing that he might suddenly recover his honesty or his brain vigor. I didn't much care which.

Not long after the wedding I was in a store and saw Mr. Emmingway sauntering through the aisles, occasionally deftly snatching some article from the counters. At first I thought he was not observed, but I soon saw a man following him, and every time the old man took anything the follower made a note of it. Mr. Emmingway left the store, and I followed him. To my surprise, he was joined outside by his valet. And what astonished me more was that instead of taking his master's arm to support him, as he invariably did when they left the house together, the two started briskly off, as if they were chums. I followed them to a dingy building they entered. I hurried after them and caught them just before they were going into a back room. I entered with them and closed the door behind me.

"Your game's up," I said.

The valet became deadly pale. The other turned, and I saw at a glance that he was not Mr. Emmingway. Both expected that I would have them arrested at once, but I had no such intention. I directed the valet to return the articles just stolen and to resign his position, charging him if he valued his liberty to keep the secret. He did both, and Mr. Emmingway's pilfering ceased at once. Indeed, he had never stolen anything, though his personator had reaped a rich harvest.

Having just been married, I did not dare to let my wife know that she had accepted me under a wrong impression. I gathered confidence later on.

"Dear," she said to me one day, "father's failing seems to have left him."

"Yes, love; it left him when his valet left him."

"What do you mean?" she said, looking at me inquiringly.

"I told her of my discovery. She put her arms about me in a transport of joy."

"How nice it would be if it should turn out a mistake about your ancestor,"

"There is a mistake about that, too," I replied. "I always supposed he died a natural death. He was hanged."

GREAT INTEREST

Being Taken by the Hamilton People
—Number of Players are Signed —Fixing Up Park.

Things are beginning to look bright for the new baseball park for Hamilton this season, says the Hamilton Journal. The old park used last year has been torn down. Work of grading the new grounds has started. Everything connected with the park will be thoroughly modern and up to date. The diamond will be grass both infield and out. The grandstands heretofore have been the great question at the parks. The new stand will have a seating capacity of 2,000 people. The contracts for these stands will be let in several days and work commencing as soon as the weather permits. The dressing rooms will be conveniently arranged, including shower baths.

But not only the park is arousing the interest of the people but the team to represent Hamilton. Manager Milders has secured George Engel to be with his team this season. Ernest Dehl will again appear here, although there has been talk of his leaving. Al Grohe who captained the team so well last year will again act in that capacity this year.

The players who have signed contracts up to date are: Robert Kramer, Clyde Johnson, F. Rittweger, Ernest Dehl, Robert Caldwell, George Engel, Frank Stevenson, Ben Macke, William Brinker and George Sewald.

SCHWARTZ MAY TURN OUTLAW

Bill Schwartz threatens to turn outlaw and manage and play on a semi-professional team in Akron.

Semi-professionals have reaped a harvest of coin at resort parks in and near Akron. Sunday ball was played to crowds reaching 5,000 last season. No admission could be charged, but liberal donations were always received.

Schwartz's plan is to run his cigar store during the week and play on Sunday. The owner of a park at Summit lake has offered Bill a franchise and Schwartz says he believes he will take it.

Schwartz has almost given up hope of getting free from Peoria, by which club he was drafted. Peoria asks $800 for his release, which is more than Bill can give himself and more than he hopes any club will give for his release.

THE FAN MILL.

Ed Ransick has signed Harry Mcneher of Cincinnati, as the first member of the Springfield team. He is a catcher and played in the Queen City league.

Charlie Starr of Youngstown Saturday signed a Pittsburgh National contract. He ought to make good with the Pirates as he has a splendid record behind him.

O. M. league. The club was fired for not paying its dues.

Percy Stettler is wanted by Olean, N. Y. He may accept the offer of the Interstate league club. Percy's star is on the wane and he cannot command the high salary he once received.

Sammy Wright is signing all the promising youngsters in northeastern Ohio. He now has in the neighborhood of fifty for the spring try-out at Andover. Here's "our chance boys."

Peter Porter, the young attorney who broke into the game at New Castle last year, wants to manage this year. Coming along pretty fast, Tommy Leach may manage the Pittsburgh team when Fred Clarke quits. Fred may quit in eight or ten years, so Tommy has a pretty good chance, sometime, maybe.

They say there do be a few deals on in the city for trades. If so, the management won't tip it off. There is talk of a deal for a couple of the outfielders to be replaced by players from the Southern league.

You've heard of the new balls for the coming season, is that? Well, just as soon as the gong taps you won't hear any more about them, for the old time twists and curves will still be in vogue.

According to dope Tommy Leach ought to receive about $9,000 from the Pittsburgh people this season. He will come close, no doubt.

It is said that Tim Hurst may soon take a partner and a female at that. This is evidently one of Tim's winter jokes.

The four eastern clubs of the O. & P. league that was have turned over the $1,000 to Secretary Farrell of the National association. The paying of this money marks the severing of relations that has lasted for several years.

Manager Chares O'Day has received the contracts of two pitchers from the bushes. They will be given trials during the training season.

If Pullman makes good his threat to quit the presidency of the National league James A. Hart may succeed him. Hart relinquished the Chicago Cubs to Murphy and since then they have become world beaters.

Harry Lumley who made the home run smash in this city August 4, when the Brooklyn players the Molders, is wintering in Memphis and is getting along fine. He says he will be all right and can play the game just as good as ever.

Arkansas is to have a new league and will ask for national protection. There is talk of an invasion of Little Rock.

Pearl Miller of Toledo has signed a Youngstown contract. It is thought that he will be a corner the coming season.

Business men of Marion have taken over the polo franchise of Quian's. Only one change was made in the line-up. Interest was lagging and the new owners will endeavor to boost the game in the Line Burners town.

Fred Burlew was arrested and sent to the station house in Detroit yesterday for assaulting a street car conductor. He is a catcher on the Minneapolis team.

The Ohio Wesleyan Athletic association on yesterday elected T. H. Brown of Cardington, manager of the basketball team. W. E. Burns of Marietta, was made track manager.

Owing to the death of President Robert Quinn's mother, no meeting of the Ohio league will be held for some time. It was to have been held in Columbus last night but was indefinitely postponed.

TESTAMENT

Found in Hospital Read by Moses
Nye, Led to Conversion from Judaism to Christianity.

Moses Nye, a converted Jew, who came to Newark 25 years ago, spoke to a large audience at the Fifth street Baptist church Monday night. His subject was the restoration of the Jewish people, the finding of the Ark of the Covenant, as recorded in II. Maccabees, 3:4-8, and the soon-coming of the Messiah, for which the Jews and true Christians are looking.

His text was Romans 11:1, "Has God cast away his people? God forbid." Mr. Nye is taking no collection. He is using his own money in working for the Master, for God did so much for him when all his family and his Jewish friends turned against him.

He found in the hospital at Columbus a New Testament, and after reading the same for four months, on the 20th of November, 1893, between 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning he accepted Jesus as his Savior, and he promised God that he would give all his time and money to help poor souls to find Jesus, as the only power to bring people, Jews and Gentiles, from darkness to the light and life of God.

Mr. Nye has given out many New Testaments and Bibles to his own people and many to Gentiles. Every Sunday morning when at home in Columbus, he visits the Ohio penitentiary and teaches a class of convicts the Sunday school lesson. Mr. Nye expects to work among his old friends in Licking county, and any church or preacher who wants his assistance can have it free by addressing him at 328 East State street, Columbus, O.

The meetings at the Baptist church will continue during the week. Much interest is being shown. Miss Maude Johnson will sing a solo tonight.

GEO. WATSON ASKS DAMAGES FOR SLANDER

George C. Watson has commenced suit in the Common Pleas court for $10,000 damages against Finney Haas for defamation of character, in slandering him in a conversation with James Bricker, which was as follows: "Clem (meaning the plaintiff), is working for you now. How do you like him?"

"I like him first rate," was the reply of Bricker. "He used to work for you, didn't he?"

"Yes," replied the defendant. "I like him all right, only he is dishonest as a hog. He used to drive away cattle and hogs, and he was caught with them," meaning that plaintiff was guilty of larceny.

Plaintiff says that by reason of the speaking, publishing and uttering of the false, scandalous and malicious words, he has been greatly prejudiced in his good name and reputation, and greatly injured in his business. He asks damages in the sum of $10,000. Smythe & Smythe, attorneys for the plaintiff.

Motion for New Trial.
In the case of the Centerville Building and Loan Association vs. Elizabeth Goff and others, the plaintiff has filed a motion for a new trial. R. L. Tancymill, E. S. Randolph and Flory & Flory, attorneys for the plaintiff.

Fulton et al vs. Dush et al.
In the case of James W. Fulton and Eliza Carner vs. Eliza F. Dush, Hanna Dush and Richard A. Morely, the first two named defendants waive the issue and service of summons and enter their voluntary appearance.

To Set Aside Adoption.
The Probate court heard the motion filed by P. B. Smythe as attorney for John Kemnitz to set aside the former order of adoption made by the Probate court in which John and Martha Keiner adopted Gladys Kemnitz. At the former proceeding a petition for adoption was filed by Mrs. Keiner. Kemnitz now being present, on the representation that he had abandoned the child, the order of adoption was thereupon given to Mrs. Keiner. The plaintiff for the motion contended that a guardian should have been appointed to give consent for the absent father. The court held the contention correct and

Valuable Recipe For Home-made Cough Cure

This recipe will give you a pint of unequalled cough medicine—enough to last the whole family a long time. It may be made in five minutes, is pleasant to take, and usually cures a cold or deep-seated cough in twenty-four hours.

Granulated Sugar Syrup, 1 1/2 oz.
Pinex 2 1/2 oz.

Three-quarters of a pound of granulated sugar will be enough. The 2 1/2 oz. of Pinex can be had of any druggist for 50 cents. Mix in a clean pint bottle. Shake well. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours as required. Well corked, it keeps for many months.

Pinex is the pure and highly concentrated extract of Norway white pine tar. It contains the highest known proportion of gualacol, the curative element which has made the Norwegian pine forests famous for centuries in the cure of consumption.

The pure Pinex is not to be confused with any of the numerous pine tar or pine oil preparations. All druggists have it or will get it if requested.

ordered the former decree of adoption set aside until new proceedings could be had, and ordered the child, who is six years old, to remain in the custody of her aunt, Mrs. Kether, until the matter is settled.

In Justices' Courts.
John H. Love was arrested on a warrant issued by Justice Holton at the instance of Ora Love, his wife, charging him with failing to support his minor daughter. He entered a plea of guilty and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $100.

William Trace, who was arrested on the charge of committing a criminal assault on Maud Sprague, a girl under the age of 16 years, will have his hearing before Justice Nash Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Real Estate Transfers.
Seth S. Wright and wife to Harley A. Thurston, real estate in Monroe township, $200.

Rachel A. Richardson to Elizabeth A. Smith, real estate in Hopewell township, keeping, maintaining and supporting Rachel A. Richardson during her natural life time.

Ellen Bolton to Wm. Colling, lot 1929 in Geo. W. Penney's addition to Newark, $1600.

Officers Seize Liquor.

The 30 days' limit by law for the going into effect of the local option law of Johnstown, having expired on Monday, January 22, 1908 there was issued on Thursday, January 23, 1908, out of the office of Mayor M. D. Shrader, of Johnstown, affidavits for search warrants to seize intoxicating liquor, which were served on two of the saloons in Johnstown, which had been doing business there, and a quantity of liquor was seized by the officers in each place. The matter has been set down for trial before the mayor of Johnstown on Friday, January 31. Mayor Shrader was in the city on Tuesday.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

JOHN J. CARROLL

Mrs. James Richards, while engaged in doing some chores about his home, several miles north of town, became dizzy, and fell backward, his head striking the ground and rendering him unconscious. He sustained a bad bruise on his head, which, with his dizzy spell, laid him out for a day or two.

Quite a number of young men from this place who have been working in Newark for the past year or two, are returning to the farm. It's good sense, too. The farms have been depopulated by the city's demands, but men have learned that they live cheaper and are happier where life is not so strenuous.

The basket ball game between the teams of Doane Academy and the Scrubbers, played Monday afternoon, resulted in a victory for the academy boys by a score of 44 to 0.

Mr. William Townsend of Zanesville spent Monday in the village.

Miss Ella Hill of Piqua, O., who has been visiting here for the past several days, returned home Tuesday.

A number of the students of Denison University have been suffering with the grip during the past week.

Mrs. G. L. Williams of Columbus, spent Sunday with friends in the village.

The grip this year is said to be more like the 1890 epidemic than the disease has been at any intervening time.

BOAT OF NEWSPAPERS.

G. W. Johnson to Row From Florida to New York in Paper Shell.

George W. Johnson, an old time Harlem river oarsman, now living in St. Augustine, Fla., is constructing a peculiar boat in which he contemplates rowing from St. Augustine to New York via the inside route—through the sounds, the bayous and canals—next spring, says the New York Herald. The boat is to be constructed of newspapers and to be in the form of a shell, with a little more beam than the ordinary racing type. Mr. Johnson rowed from New York to Boston in 1888 in a somewhat similar craft. The length of the cruising shell is twenty feet by twenty inches beam, six inches deep, and it will have ten water tight bulkheads.

The boat is to be constructed entirely of newspapers. Mr. Johnson hopes to have in the craft a copy of every daily paper in the United States. About twenty thicknesses of paper are to be used for the hull of the shell, which will be made in a mold under pressure, producing a composition harder and tougher than any wood. The deck will be similarly constructed of paper, and the headings of the various papers will be used as a mosaic for the outside coating.

The mold is all ready at Mr. Johnson's bazaar, 30 1/2 St. George street, St. Augustine, and as soon as newspapers are sent in in sufficient quantity Mr. Johnson will begin work on his novel craft.

SAVED BY SHOPMATE

Wm. Vedder of 9 Ingersoll Avenue, Schenectady, Tells How Father John's Medicine Cured His Lungs and Built Up His Strength.

"Last fall, I had a severe attack of pneumonia and was confined to the house for four months. At the end of that time I was still suffering from a hard, racking cough, from which the doctors could give no relief. I tried everything I could think of or hear of but with no beneficial result. In this condition I returned to work. One day a shopmate, who noticed how I was suffering, advised me to try a bottle of Father John's Medicine. I did so and began to get relief at once. I was soon cured of the cough and able once more to take a good night's rest, but fearing that the cough might return, I continued taking the medicine until I had used twelve bottles. When I began to take the medicine I was in a very weak condition, but I gained in strength rapidly and am now as strong as ever. I believe my cure was due entirely to Father John's Medicine and I heartily recommend it to all who are similarly afflicted." (Signed) William Vedder, 9 Ingersoll Avenue, Schenectady, N. Y.

Hear THE WORLD'S HEART BEAT.

(Atlanta Constitution.)
A while forget your troubles,
An' hear the world's heart beat;
The honey-bees will blow for you
In all the blossoms sweet!

The flowers will fringe with beauty
The pathways where you tread;
The birds will sing your sighs away,
The fields will give you bread.

A while forget your troubles!
Dream that the sky is blue;
The black storm has a rainbow—
God made the world for you!

Veils are now the most conspicuous thing in the large cities, and the woman who likes to wear them is happy. The edging of velvet ribbon is worn much the same as last year but this season the veil must be either square or round, as they must cover the hat and can be easily and artistically draped.

The bargains in Long Bros. closing out sale are surely attracting the women to that store.

The unusual character of the up-to-date coiffure has not only stimulated the demand for extra puffs and braids but it has increased the demand for ornate combs and pins as well. Not in many months have so many expensive hair ornaments been sold, for the fluffy masses of false hair poised so audaciously upon almost every woman's head affords every possible opportunity for a becoming coiffure.

Many women are good cooks, in fact most women are, yet their efforts are not always appreciated. In most cases the fault lies with the service. The most essential thing in service is a rice meal is nice white-linen. Nothing adds so much to the meal. The sale this week at the Powers-Miller company affords some splendid opportunities to replenish this all important part of the household.

A woman suffrage lecturer, according to the Boston Globe, recently brought down the house with the following argument: "I have no vote, but my groom has. I have a great respect for that man in the stables, but I am sure if I were to go to him and say, 'John, will you exercise the franchise?' he would reply, 'Please, mum, which horse be that?'"

Don't forget that tomorrow is Carnation Day for McKinley. Miller, the Florist, has plenty of lovely carnations for you.

Another summer is heralded by the shirt waist sales. Too convenient, too dainty and too becoming to lose, the wash blouse is with us to stay. Two leading styles mark the summer outlook, the man-tailored shirt and the lingerie blouse.

Don't neglect to start that checking account at the Guardian Savings and Trust Co. You will never regret it.

Do mothers know that when baby chokes on food, or other matter, lodged in the windpipe, if the little one's arms are raised and held high above his head, the offending substance will come up or go down? I have heard of a man who was choking with a piece of meat. A young man rushed up to him and raised his arms high, holding them forcibly in that position, and he was relieved instantly.

The prettiest showing of the newest things in veils is seen at the Carnal Sisters Millinery store at 15 West Church street.

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, whose taste in dress is always perfect, as well as the most distinctive, after discarding the becoming, but now passe Alice blue, which she brought into fame, has taken up the raspberry, and carried it to its greatest success in a superb evening gown she is now wearing for dinner party or formal reception. This is made in the newest empire model, very long and clinging, without any definite line of waist or bust, simply falling from the round, low neck to the floor, and having a long, full train.

"They say" there is nothing perfect in the world. But we don't care what "they say." We know that Goodyear Well Shoes are the perfection of footwear. Call at Linehan Bros. Seeing is believing.

In a window display of mourning goods not long ago I noticed a feature in black hats that ought to be popular. That is the white crepe lining in hats for young women and girls. The value of the touch of white to lighten the face from the gloom and heaviness of lusterless black should be appreciated.

WITNESSES HUSBAND'S DEATH.

Van Wert, Jan. 28.—Dr. L. E. Beahler was instantly killed yesterday noon at Middlepoint, within sight of his wife and home, while driving across the Pennsylvania tracks on his way home to dinner. Seated in a closed carriage he failed to notice the west bound flyer until too late.

RHEUMATIC FOLKS!

Are You Sure Your Kidneys are Well?

Many rheumatic attacks are due to uric acid in the blood. But the duty of the kidneys is to remove all uric acid from the blood. Its presence there shows the kidneys are inactive. Don't daily with "uric acid solvents." You might go on till doomsday with them, but until you cure the kidneys you will never get well. Doan's Kidney Pills not only remove uric acid, but cure the kidneys and then all danger from uric acid is ended. Here is Newark testimony to prove it.

Mrs. M. E. Menville, 39 Lansing Block, Newark, Ohio, says: "I received more relief from Doan's Kidney Pills than from any remedy I ever used. I was bothered a great deal from rheumatism in my limbs and back and was never free from pain. Although I used various remedies, I was constantly growing worse. I at last heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured a box at Crayton's drug store and took them according to directions and they completely disposed of the rheumatism and rid me of all the other symptoms of disordered kidneys. Although this was over ten years ago, I can just as heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today as the results I obtained have proven permanent."

FAVORS TRADE SCHOOLS.

A. F. of L. Indorses Movement For Industrial Education.

Popular belief is that organized labor is not friendly to trade school training. But a circular recently issued by the National Association For the Promotion of Industrial Education seems to indicate that the American Federation of Labor is not opposed to it.

Resolutions adopted by the education committee of the federation indorse the movement for industrial education in the following terms: "That we indorse any policy of any society or association having for its object the raising of the standard of industrial education and the teaching of the higher technique of our various industries."

In a report accompanying the resolutions the committee says: "After an exhaustive, impartial discussion your committee decided to record itself in favor of the best opportunities for the most complete industrial and technical education obtainable for prospective applicants for admission into the skilled crafts of this country, particularly as regards the full possibilities of such crafts, to the end that such applicants be fitted not only for all usual requirements, but also for the highest supervisory duties, responsibilities and rewards, and your committee recommends that the executive council give this subject its early and deep consideration, examining established and proposed industrial school systems, so that it may be in a position to inform the American Federation of Labor what, in the council's opinion, would be the wisest course for organized labor to pursue in connection therewith."

Aided Fair Employers.
At the annual meeting of the New Zealand Federation of Employers a paper was read on the "Arbitration and Conciliation Act" by the president, Mr. Scott. He said that the latest statistics showed the increase of wages had been 8 1/2 per cent to 10 per cent, while the increased cost of living had gone up 25 to 30 per cent. The only good the act had done had been to protect good employers against unscrupulous competition.

NEWARK BIRDS

MADE FINE SHOWING AT ZANESVILLE POULTRY SHOW LAST WEEK.

Thomas E. Adams, Arthur Powell and Other Fanciers Get Many of the Best Prizes.

At the Zanesville Poultry show that was held in that city last week, the Newark exhibitors rather scooped the good things.

Mr. Thos E. Adams won first prize for Plymouth Rock pullet, tied for second, tied for first prize on hen, took fourth on hen, took special on best striped hen, and special on best colored hen. All Rocks.

Mr. Arthur Powell got almost everything in the Wyandotte class. Silver and Golden white Mr. Seymour and Mr. L. L. Gregg got the high honors in the Langshan and White Wyandotte class respectively.

The exhibition was a high class show, and the exhibitors from here are loud in their praise of the Zanesville gentlemen who were at the head of the exhibition.

ONE CIRCUIT

OF METALLIC CARBON LAMPS MAY BE INSTALLED BY THE SERVICE BOARD.

Electrical Engineers of Westinghouse Company in Newark Testing Lights Tuesday.

Many people wondered why the electric lights were burning on the streets Tuesday morning between 9 and 11 o'clock. The Westinghouse electrical engineers were here testing the lines of the arc lamps and the electrical machinery and engines in order to ascertain whether or not they were in proper condition and getting the full power. The conditions of the report will have considerable to do with the Board of Public Service, adopting one circuit of metallic carbon lamps, which burn 275 hours, and may use half the energy that those now in use do. Mr. Taylor, of the Board of Public Service, said that the effect of installing this one circuit of the metallic carbon lamps was to give better light on that circuit, with half the energy now used, which would give them a surplus energy to extend the service through the outlying districts of the city with the same machinery now used.

JERSEY LOST

A Most Interesting Debate on Government Ownership to Team from Alexandria.

Jersey, O., Jan. 28.—On Friday evening a debating contest between the High schools of Alexandria and Jersey was held at the town hall. Each of the schools had been victorious in a preceding debate, Alexandria having won from Pataskala, and Jersey from Kirkersville. The question was, "Resolved, That the United States Should Own and Control the Railroads." Each side had made careful preparation and was confident of winning. Alexandria had chosen the affirmative, and the question was opened by Forest Helsner. He lost no time in the start, but went right after the question, and his debate was forceful, to the point and showed careful study. Helsner made a good impression upon the judges.

S. Herbert Berger represented Jersey as first on the negative. He began by successfully overhauling a part of his opponent's argument, but his remarks lacked a little force. However, he showed that he had given the question a deal of hard study.

Trolley Car Plunged Through Ice Into Water—Number of Passengers Injured.

Salem, Jan. 28.—A limited interurban car on the Youngstown and Ohio electric railway jumped the track 3 miles east of here Monday afternoon, and plunged down a 20-foot embankment. Fifteen passengers of the 25 aboard were injured, but none of them fatally. The car in its plunge struck a trolley pole and the vestibule was torn entirely off. Motorman Eugene Muggy of Leontonia was badly hurt, but will recover.

The car continued to the bottom of the embankment and broke through the ice into four feet of water. The passengers were rescued through the windows by farmers who saw the accident.
